OFFICIAL VOLUNTEER AGREEMENT

1. No personal information about troops gained from this website will be shared in any way with anyone else who is not a volunteer. "Personal information" includes names, addresses, family information, and any other information that pertains to specific troops.
2. The content of packages sent to troops through this website are to be posted on the website by the volunteer who sends the package.
3. Requests or offers for illegally "burned" or copied media are not permitted on the site, nor are volunteers encouraged to send those items to troops.
4. Books For Soldiers (BFS) encourages volunteers to follow all USPS and military regulations covering items that may be sent to troops. Sending illegal items will result in immediate cancellation of your BFS account and your volunteer status will be revoked.
5. BFS welcomes anyone who wishes to support the troops. It is not a political organization, nor is it to be used for political purposes. Political posts and statements either "for" or "against" war will be deleted. Political material and religious material should only be sent if specifically requested by a troop; email and letters on political and religious topics are not to be sent unless specifically requested by a troop.
6. BFS is not an open forum. The BFS moderators have the right to remove or edit any post deemed necessary for the good of the soldiers and BFS community.
7. BFS is not a dating or personals site. Volunteers are expected to ensure that their conduct is at all times appropriate for a family - oriented website. Sending or soliciting unwanted proposals, "cheesecake" photos, and similar items will result in permanent cancellation of your BFS account and your volunteer status will be revoked.
8. Children under 18 are allowed to register for an account on BFS, although they are encouraged to participate in supporting the troops under the supervision of a parent, guardian, teacher, etc. Because we want to ensure the supervision of an adult, applications will not be accepted by anyone under 18.
